

Teaching & Learning in Writing - DELBAR

Do Now	Engage	Learn	Build	Apply	Review
What does this look like in a PSJ writing lesson? Retrieval SPaG starter Transcription Dictation Find and fix Understanding the sentence activities Grammar starters	What does this look like in a PSJ writing lesson? Read WAGOLL Book talk Book talk template Immerse Role play/drama Communication roles Oracy Speaking and listening activities EYFS and KS1 Discussion Guidelines KS2 Discussion Guidelines Communication roles for all	What does this look like in a PSJ writing lesson? Analyse Teach grammar in context Plan Define audience and purpose The Meaningful Whole Teacher model Oracy - speak plan aloud Audience and purpose planner 1 Audience and purpose planner 2 Skeleton planning templates	What does this look like in a PSJ writing lesson? I do, We do, You do Questioning Short burst writing opportunities Teacher response - marking in the moment React to marking and practice a grammar feature	What does this look like in a PSJ writing lesson? Draft Independent Write Quality over quantity Teacher response - marking in the moment Give immediate verbal feedback during writing. Use live marking and conferencing.	What does this look like in a PSJ writing lesson? High quality feedback and marking AFL Mop up Revise Revise is rewrite Does the story hold the reader? Guided groups based on need Alex Quigley - Sentence variation activities Sentence signposting KS1 Sentence signposting KS2 Edit Edit is secretarial Spelling, punctuation, grammar Share Refer back to purpose and audience